

Mock Weekly Menus

Montreal - Late August through September 2026

This booklet collects seven machine-generated "what-if" production weeks for a Montreal kitchen, produced by the menus-recommend skill. Dishes are drawn from the recipe repertoire and shaped by the chef-pattern document (PATTERNS.md, generated 2026-08-09). The two August weeks use REAL Open-Meteo weather; the five September weeks use invented climate normals because they fall beyond the 16-day forecast horizon. These are exploratory mocks - NOT real chef menus.

Comments and weather

Warm, showery late-August week. Rainy Monday (22 C) then a genuine 3-day >=24 C streak Tue-Thu - the chef's stated trigger for a chilled cold soup - so one Melonccio is placed midweek. Otherwise a salad-leaning warm-week shape with the full spine on every service day. Production Mon-Thu; Friday service-only.

Why this menu

Strategy

Real forecast, warm and showery. The week keeps the full spine (soup + salad + fish every service day) but leans salad-forward because four of five days sit at 24-25 C. The one weather event that changes the shape is the 3-day >=24 C streak (Tue-Thu), which meets the chef's stated chilled-cold-soup trigger - so a single Melonccio goes on midweek. The rainy Monday keeps a couple of comfort mains (poutine, ratatouille) on to hold sales on a stay-home day.

Per-day notes

- Monday (22 C, heavy rain). Comfort mains hold against a stay-home day; KM anchors Monday.
- Tuesday (25 C). Warmest day, salad-lean; sandwiches + sauces produced this morning; first texture (makhani).

- Wednesday (24 C). Mid-streak - the chilled Melonccio lands here; salmon ginger pairs with salmon pesto.
- Thursday (24 C). Pico takes its Thursday slot on a warm day; second texture (satay) spaced a day from Tuesday; extra late soups made for Friday.
- Friday (24 C). Service-only - Thursday's late soups + pret-a-manger stock.

Pattern citations

- Chilled cold soup only on a 2-3 day ≥ 24 C streak - weather_temp, chef-stated (high). The Tue-Thu streak qualifies.
- KM -> Monday - per_day_balance, chef-stated (high).
- Texture mains Tue + Thu, spaced - per_day_balance, chef-stated (high).
- Pico -> Thursday, never Monday; warm/surplus-driven - per_day_balance / weather_temp, chef-stated (high).
- Salmon ginger paired with salmon pesto same week - rotation, chef-stated (high).
- Two spicy Asian soups (Korean, Tom Yum) kept alongside savoury non-spicy (Mushroom Tarragon, Harira) - rotation, chef-stated (high).
- Forestiere quiche in place of the ham quiche - rotation, chef-stated (high).
- One carrot salad (Carrot-Celeriac-Almond); one cabbage salad (KM only) - per_day_balance, chef-stated (high).
- Vege chicken salad as this week's alternating compose - rotation (tuna $\leftrightarrow$ vege chicken biweekly), chef-stated (high).
- Ratatouille without lasagna; paella without risotto - rotation alternation, chef-stated (high).
- Mon-Thu production, Friday service-only - per_day_balance / work-week, chef-stated (high).
- Skeleton counts (6 salades, 5 soupe, 5 potage, 4 vege, 3 poisson, 3 compose, 2 hummus, 2 texture, 2 sandwich, 1 sauce, 1 quiche, 1 pico) - menu_skeleton medians (high).

Improvisation / honesty flags

- Weather is REAL but a forecast (fetched 2026-08-15); values 2-6 days out can shift, which would move the cold-soup decision.
- The chilled cold soup is a borderline call. The streak is 24-25 C - warm, but not the "hottest part of summer" the chef reserves Melonccio for. Placed because the ≥ 24 C streak rule is met; flag it as the one weather-judgment on the week.
- One-chicken + one-vege-beef texture only half-met - both textures are vege chicken (Makhani, Satay); the repertoire has no distinct vege-beef texture main. Repertoire gap, not a chef choice.
- The "Ham" staple (47/47 weeks) is unrepresented - the pool is vegan-forward with no standalone ham main.
- Tags are linked from the repertoire recipes (themselves largely inferred; see PATTERNS.md small-sample caveat).
- Soupe vs. potage split is my inferred judgment (most are tagged `format: soup`).
- Poke omitted - the one-poke-per-week slot has no category in the menu template.

Weekly schedule

Day	Temp	Weather	Featured dishes	Notes
Monday	22 °C	overcast	Kale Mango Cabbage Salad, Korean Soup, Cream of Tomato Soup, Creamy Broccoli Salad, Beet Hazelnut Salad, Salmon Pesto Artichoke, Gluten-Free Vegetable Lasagna, Cashew Hummus	KM on Monday. Lasagna anchors the hearty mains for the cooling week.

Thursday	17 °C	overcast	Veggie Jerk Chicken with Orange Remoulade, Harira, The Moroccan, Parsnip Pear Pecan Soup, Salt Cod Curry, Vegan Poutine (Medium), Provencal Salad	Coldest day (17 C) -> hearty. Second texture (jerk) spaced from Tuesday. Orange remoulade omitted because jerk chicken is on the menu (rotation rule). Extra late soups for Friday.
Friday	20 °C	overcast	Korean Soup, Thai Peanut, Kale Mango Cabbage Salad, Creamy Broccoli Salad, Salt Cod Curry	SERVICE-ONLY - no production. Thursday's late soups + pret-a-manger stock serve today.

Comments and weather

Distinctly cooler, wetter week - highs fall from 22 C Monday to 17 C Thursday with rain midweek. Per the chef, cool weather broadens demand (soups AND hearty AND salads all sell), so the week leans into hot soups and hearty mains (lasagna, risotto, stews) while keeping salads on. No ≥ 24 C day, so no cold soup. Production Mon-Thu; Friday service-only.

Why this menu

Strategy

Real forecast, and a clear contrast with the prior week: highs slide from 22 C to 17 C with rain midweek. The chef's stated read of cool weather is that it broadens demand - soups, hearty mains, and salads all sell - so this week leans into hot soups and hearty mains (lasagna, risotto, lentil stew, moqueca) while keeping a full salad line. With no ≥ 24 C day, there is deliberately no cold soup. Rotating dishes are swapped from last week for biweekly variety.

Per-day notes

- Monday (22 C). KM anchors Monday; lasagna leads the hearty mains as the week cools.
- Tuesday (20 C, rain). Sandwiches + sauce made this morning; first texture (thai chicken); risotto this week.

- Wednesday (19 C, wet). Coolest, wettest midweek - hearty stews (lentil, moqueca) and warming soups.
- Thursday (17 C). Coldest day, hearty; second texture (jerk) spaced from Tuesday; extra late soups for Friday.
- Friday (20 C). Service-only - Thursday's late soups + pret-a-manger stock.

Pattern citations

- Cool weather -> soups + hearty + salads all sell - weather_temp, chef-stated (medium).
- No >=24 C day -> no chilled cold soup - weather_temp, chef-stated (high).
- KM -> Monday - per_day_balance, chef-stated (high).
- Texture mains Tue + Thu, spaced - per_day_balance, chef-stated (high).
- Orange remoulade left off because jerk chicken is on the menu - rotation, chef-stated (high).
- Ratatouille <-> lasagna alternate (lasagna this week; ratatouille last week) - rotation, chef-stated (high).
- Mushroom risotto <-> paella never share a week (risotto this week; paella last week) - rotation, chef-stated (high).
- Mushroom tarragon dropped this week (biweekly, ran last week) - rotation, chef-stated (high).
- Hummus colours varied week to week (pale cashew/parsnip vs. last week's green) - rotation, chef-stated (high).
- Two spicy Asian soups (Korean, Pho, Thai Peanut) kept alongside savoury non-spicy (Lentil Stew, Harira) - rotation, chef-stated (high).
- <=2 cabbage salads (KM + crunchy cabbage); one carrot salad (carrot-orange) - per_day_balance, chef-stated (high).
- Mon-Thu production, Friday service-only - per_day_balance / work-week, chef-stated (high).
- Skeleton counts (6 salades, 5 soupe, 5 potage, 4 vege, 3 poisson, 2 compose, 2 hummus, 2 texture, 2 sandwich, 1 sauce, 1 quiche) - menu_skeleton medians (high; compose at min 2).

Improvisation / honesty flags

- Weather is REAL but a forecast (fetched 2026-08-15); 9-13 days out it can shift materially - treat this week's temps as indicative.
- The biweekly tuna-salad compose is omitted - the tuna <-> vege chicken compose alternation would put tuna salad here, but the repertoire has no standalone tuna-salad file (only tuna wraps), so the compose count sits at the minimum of 2.
- One-chicken + one-vege-beef texture only half-met - both textures are vege chicken (Thai, Jerk); no distinct vege-beef texture main exists in the repertoire.
- The "Ham" staple (47/47 weeks) is unrepresented - vegan-forward pool, no standalone ham main.
- Romesco as the week's sauce is a soft fit - its stated trigger is cheap cauliflower (not on this menu); used here as a general sauce. Swap to a marinara if lasagna's day-before sauce is wanted instead (no dedicated marinara file exists in the repertoire).
- Tags are linked from the repertoire recipes (themselves largely inferred).
- Soupe vs. potage split is my inferred judgment.
- Poke omitted - no category in the menu template.

Weekly schedule

Day	Temp	Weather	Featured dishes	Notes
Monday	26 °C	sunny	Kale Mango Cabbage Salad, Korean Soup, Cream of Tomato Soup, Creamy Broccoli Salad, Beet Goat Cheese, Salmon Pesto Artichoke, Ratatouille, Broccoli and Pistachio Hummus	Rentree week - Monday plate production trimmed ahead of next Monday's Labour Day CLOSURE (flagged a week ahead). Warm 26C, staple-forward. KM on Monday.
Tuesday	25 °C	mostly sunny	Veggie Chicken Mango Saffron, Cold Melonccio Soup, Green Tom Yum Soup, The Moroccan, Provencal Salad, Carrot, Celeriac, and Almond Salad, Vege Chicken Salad, Veggie Paella, Salmon Pesto Artichoke Sandwich, Satay Vege Chicken Banh Mi Sandwich, Satay Sauce, Ham and Vegetable Quiche, Cashew Hummus	2-day >=24C (Mon-Tue) -> last chilled Melonccio of the season (borderline, flagged). Sandwiches + sauce made this morning. Ham quiche (the Ham staple). First texture (mango saffron).
Wednesday	23 °C	partly cloudy	Mushroom Tarragon Soup, Squash Maple Ginger, Sesame Ginger Salmon, Orange Fennel Salad, Root Trio, Braised Vegetables	Cool-down begins. Mushroom tarragon (biweekly, this-week slot).
Thursday	21 °C	cloudy	Festive Vegan Meatballs, Harira, Carrot Apple Curry, Parsnip Pear Pecan Soup, Mediterranean-Style Haddock, Pico de Gallo, Vegan Poutine (Medium)	Last Pico of the warm season (Thursday slot; flagged - just past the May-Aug window). Friday	22 °C	partly cloudy	Korean Soup, Mushroom Tarragon Soup, Kale Mango Cabbage Salad, Creamy Broccoli Salad, Mediterranean-Style Haddock	SERVICE-ONLY - no production. Wednesday/Thursday late soups + pret-a-manger stock.

Comments and weather

Warm rentree week - the last real burst of summer before the September cool-down. Highs start at 26C Monday and ease through the week. A 2-day >=24C run (Mon-Tue) still meets the chilled-cold-soup trigger, so ONE last Melonccio goes on, and Pico takes its final warm-season Thursday slot. Back-to-school means reduced production favouring staples; Monday plates are trimmed ahead of next Monday's Labour Day closure.

Why this menu

Strategy

The seasonal hinge week. Late-August warmth (26C Monday) fades toward the low-20s, so this is the LAST week that behaves like summer: one final chilled Melonccio on the Mon-Tue >=24C run, and the last warm-season Pico on Thursday. It is also rentree - Quebec back-to-school - which per the chef means reduced production and staple-forward menus, and it is the week before the Sep 7 Labour Day Monday closure, so Monday plates are trimmed and the closure is flagged a week ahead.

Per-day notes

- Monday (26 C). Trimmed Monday production (pre-closure rule); staple-forward for rentree; KM anchors Monday.
- Tuesday (25 C). Last Melonccio of the season on the 2-day $\geq 24C$ run; sandwiches + sauce this morning; Ham quiche; first texture (mango saffron).
- Wednesday (23 C). Cool-down begins; mushroom tarragon takes its biweekly slot.
- Thursday (21 C). Last warm-season Pico; second texture is the vege-beef meatballs; extra late soups for Friday.
- Friday (22 C). Service-only.

Pattern citations

- Back-to-school weeks -> reduced production, favour staples - calendar, chef-stated (high).
- Monday plate production cut the week before a Monday closure; closure flagged a week ahead - calendar, chef-stated (high).
- Chilled cold soup only on a 2-3 day $\geq 24C$ streak - weather_temp, chef-stated (high). Mon-Tue qualifies (borderline; see flags).
- Pico -> warm season only (May-Aug) - calendar, medium. Placed as the season sunset; flagged.
- KM -> Monday; texture mains Tue + Thu spaced - per_day_balance, chef-stated (high).
- Ham quiche as the week's quiche - honours the Ham staple (menu_skeleton / rotation, high).
- Ratatouille without lasagna; paella without risotto; mushroom tarragon biweekly - rotation, chef-stated (high).
- One-chicken + one-vege-beef texture pair MET this week (mango-saffron chicken + vegan meatballs) - per_day_balance, chef-stated (high).
- One carrot salad, one cabbage salad (KM) - per_day_balance, chef-stated (high).
- Mon-Thu production, Friday service-only - per_day_balance / work-week, chef-stated (high).

Improvisation / honesty flags

- Weather is INVENTED (Montreal late-Aug/Sep normals) - beyond the 16-day forecast horizon; treat temps as seasonal placeholders.
- The final Melonccio is a borderline call - a 2-day (not 3-day) $\geq 24C$ run at the tail of summer; placed as a deliberate season-closer.
- Pico is one day past its stated May-Aug window - kept as the season sunset; flag it.
- Reduced production is represented as fewer Monday dishes + staple choices, not as literal batch sizes (the mock has no quantities).
- Some repertoire tags (weather/richness) were blank and inferred from name + ingredients.
- Poke omitted - no category in the menu template.

Weekly schedule

Day	Temp	Weather	Featured dishes	Notes
Monday	-	CLOSED - Labour Day	CLOSED	CLOSED - Labour Day statutory Monday holiday (closure flagged a week ahead; no Monday service).
Tuesday	23 °C	mostly sunny	Kale Mango Cabbage Salad, Veggie Chicken with Cardamom, Korean Soup, Cream of Tomato Soup, Creamy Broccoli Salad, Beet Hazelnut Salad, Salmon Pesto Artichoke, Gluten-Free Vegetable Lasagna, Blackened Haddock Sandwich, Hummus Apple and Brie Sandwich, Tuna Salad Wrap, Hummus, Apple, and Brie Wrap, Romesco, Forestiere Quiche, Parsnip Hummus	First service day after the holiday. Sandwich production halved/spread (Mon holiday rule); WRAPS added for the school year. KM shifts to Tuesday (no Monday service). First texture (cardamom chicken).

Friday	21 °C	partly cloudy	Korean Soup, Vegan Pho Soup, Kale Mango Cabbage Salad, Creamy Broccoli Salad, Salt Cod Curry	SERVICE-ONLY - no production. Thursday's late soups + pret-a-manger stock.

Comments and weather

Short week: Labour Day closes Monday, so production runs Tuesday-Thursday. Early-autumn cool (low 20s, rain Thursday) broadens demand toward soups and hearty mains. The school year is underway, so WRAPS join the line (they sell when sandwiches run out); with the Monday holiday, sandwich production is halved/spread. No cold soup (no >=24C day).

Why this menu

Strategy

A four-day week built around the Labour Day Monday closure. Production runs Tuesday-Thursday; the closure was flagged a week ahead (see the Aug 31 week). Early-autumn cool (low 20s, rain Thursday) is the chef's "everything sells" weather, so the week keeps a full soup + hearty + salad line. The school year has started, so wraps join the menu - and because the Monday holiday halves sandwich production, the wraps also cover the sandwich gap.

Per-day notes

- Monday. CLOSED - Labour Day.

- Tuesday (23 C). First service day: KM shifts here; sandwiches halved/spread; wraps debut; first texture (cardamom chicken).
- Wednesday (21 C). Risotto week; cool-autumn soups.
- Thursday (20 C, rain). Rainy -> hearty comfort; second texture (jerk tofu); extra late soups for Friday.
- Friday (21 C). Service-only.

Pattern citations

- Monday statutory holiday -> closed that day - calendar, chef-stated (high).
- Sandwiches made Tue morning; a Monday holiday halves/spreads sandwich production - calendar, chef-stated (high).
- Wraps sell during the school year when sandwiches run out (tuna salad, hummus-apple-brie) - rotation / calendar, chef-stated (high).
- No $\geq 24^{\circ}\text{C}$ day -> no chilled cold soup - weather_temp, chef-stated (high).
- Cool/rainy -> push hot, hearty soups and mains - weather_temp, chef-stated (high).
- KM present (shifted to Tuesday as the first service day) - per_day_balance, chef-stated (high).
- Texture mains Tue + Thu, spaced - per_day_balance, chef-stated (high).
- Lasagna without ratatouille; risotto without paella; mushroom tarragon OFF (biweekly) - rotation, chef-stated (high).
- Mon-Thu production, Friday service-only - per_day_balance / work-week, chef-stated (high).

Improvisation / honesty flags

- Weather is INVENTED (early-September normals) - beyond the forecast horizon.
- Both textures are chicken/tofu, not one vege-beef - the chicken+beef pair is only half-met this week (repertoire has no plated vege-beef main; the closest, vegan meatballs, ran the prior week).
- Ham staple appears as the ham quiche on alternating weeks (forestiere this week).
- Some repertoire tags (weather/richness) were blank and inferred.
- Poke omitted - no category in the menu template.

Weekly schedule

Comments and weather

Full autumn cooling week (high teens, rain midweek). Cool weather broadens demand, so the week leans into hot soups and hearty mains while keeping salads on. Mushroom tarragon returns on its biweekly slot; ratatouille/paella swap back in against last week's lasagna/risotto. Wraps continue for the school year.

Why this menu

Strategy

Straightforward autumn cooling week (high teens, rain midweek). Cool weather is the chef's "everything sells" read, so the week runs a full soup + hearty + salad line and leans a bit harder as the week cools toward 17C Thursday. Rotation swaps back to ratatouille/paella and brings mushroom tarragon back on its biweekly slot; wraps continue for the school year.

Per-day notes

- Monday (20 C). KM anchors Monday; ratatouille leads the mains.
- Tuesday (19 C). Sandwiches + wraps + sauce this morning; first texture (satay); mushroom tarragon returns.

Comments and weather

Cool, wet autumn week (mid-teens). Full lean into hot soupes, stews, and hearty mains (lasagna, risotto, jerk chicken, meatballs) with salads still on. Lasagna/risotto swap in against last week's ratatouille/paella; mushroom tarragon rests (biweekly). Ham quiche takes the quiche slot.

Why this menu

Strategy

Cool, wet autumn week in the mid-teens - a full lean into hot soupes, stews, and hearty mains, with salads still present. Rotation swaps to lasagna/risotto against last week's ratatouille/paella, rests mushroom tarragon, and gives the quiche slot to the ham quiche. Jerk chicken on the menu means its orange remoulade is left off (chef rotation rule); the vege-beef meatballs take Thursday's texture.

Per-day notes

- Monday (18 C). KM anchors Monday; lasagna leads.
- Tuesday (17 C, rain). Sandwiches + wraps + sauce this morning; jerk chicken (remoulade omitted); ham quiche.

Comments and weather

Coolest week of the set (low-to-mid teens), the shoulder into October. Hearty soupes, curries, and warming potages dominate; salads stay on but lighter. Thursday falls on Oct 1, which opens the Chili d'Orge (barley chili) season - placed as a flagged season-opener. Ratatouille/paella and mushroom tarragon return on their slots.

Why this menu

Rotation returns ratatouille/paella and mushroom tarragon.
